BULLET IN HIS LEG.

St. Albans Boy Grabbed Gun by the Muscle.

St. Albans, Dec. 2.—A painful, although not serious shooting accident happened about noon yesterday, when Harold Elrod, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Elrod of Brattleboro, received a 20-cent bullet in his right leg just below the knee. The boy said his brother, Elbridge P. Elrod, was hunting on the hill on the Sheldon road, just back of the Ruble home, and coming to a fence, picked his gun, bent first ahead of him through the fence, and then started to crawl through after it. He took hold of the barrel with his hand, when the gun, which was pointed directly toward him, went off. His brother, who was near by, carried him to the Ruble house. Dr. Seward was called and dressed the wound. The boy was then taken to the office of Dr. Davidson, where the bullet was rapidly located by the use of X-rays. He was later taken to his home and the bullet will be extracted today by Dr. Shewell.

Teaching Him Honesty.

Fifteen or 20 years ago Bill Small was a well known character in a Missouri town whose name need not be mentioned here. Bill was a colored boy who roamed the streets at will. One day he found a pocketbook containing $40, and the owner's name was stamped on the book. But Bill burned the pocketbook and spent the $40 in riotous living. Of
